Mind your medieval manners!

Good table manners were much more important in medieval times than you might think. Here are some of the rules you had to follow at a medieval banquet...

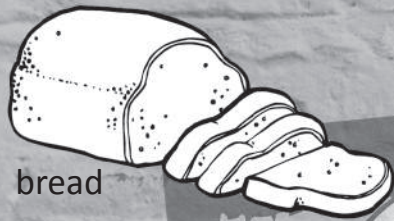

- Fingernails must be clean
- No picking your teeth with a knife
- No blowing on your food to cool it
- No gnawing bones or tearing meat to bits with teeth or fingers
- No drinking with food in your mouth
- No noisy soup slurping
- No scratching your head or spitting!

The Community Engagement Initiative is a partnership between the Northern Ireland Museums Council and National Museums Northern Ireland, funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund
